Rules for Contestants--Read Carefully

Any man, woman, boy, or girl, is eligible to enter this contest. He or she may nominate himself or herself, or a friend may place the name in nomination. Nominations may be made at any time during the life of the contest.

The territory in which contestants are eligible to enter will be confined to Shiawassee County. Voting will be by two methods: By coupons clipped from The Times which will count for 100 Votes each, and by securing paid subscriptions to The Times or collecting old subscription accounts, with payments according to the published schedule. These payments must be made in cash to the home office of the paper during the period covered by the contest, whereupon a special subscription coupon will be issued good for number of votes to which payment is entitled. Votes will not be sold or issued in any other manner. Votes are not transferable from one contestant to another. All remittances must be accompanied by subscriber's and address. Cash must accompany all subscriptions when votes are issued and must be paid to candidate or office. No employee of The Times can enter the contest. A board of three responsible business men will have exclusive control of the ballot box the last day of the contest and make announcement of that day's balloting. The contest Manager of The Times management reserves the right to reject any nomination and to pass final judgment on any question that may arise, not covered by these rules. No statement or promise made by any solicitor, canvasser or agent, varying from these rules, will be recognized by the management of The Times.

In case of a tie for any prize, the prize or prizes tied for will be divided among the contestants tying. In accepting nomination and in casting votes, all candidates must accept and agree to abide by the above rules and conditions.

AWARDING THE PRIZES

The first grand prize, the Dodge Bros. Touring Car will be awarded to the candidate having the largest number of votes at the close of the contest on January 26, 1922.

The 2nd grand prize, the Janssen Piano, will be awarded to the candidate having the second largest number of votes at the close of the contest on January 26th, 1922.

The third prize will be awarded to the candidate having the third highest number of votes at the close of the contest and all of the remaining prizes will be awarded according to their value and number until all prizes have been disposed of and the contestants that are not numbered among these prize winners will receive ten per cent cash commission on all business that they turn into The Times office to be counted for votes during the life of the contest.
